

DSW-Journal

Magazin des Deutschen Studentenwerks

DSW-Journal

The DSW-Journal is the magazine of Deutsches Studentenwerk, which is used to analyse and discuss topics of educational and higher education policy as well as make the services and work of Germany's Studentenwerke transparent to the public.

- The 40-page magazine is published four times a year and has a print run of 9,000 copies.
- The target group consists of multipliers such as university managers, associations, educational (and related) foundations, science organisations, international organisations, association members (Studentenwerke), student representatives and the specialised press.
- The DSW Journal is also sent to the political parties and fractions represented in national and federal state parliaments.
