Information on studying in Germany

How can I finance myself in Germany? Where can I live? What do I need for a visa? What about tuition fees?

[9] International students, applicants for a place at German universities, and prospective students can find useful information about studying in Germany on our web portal www.internationale-studierende.de [10]. We provide answers to many questions frequently asked by international students. The site is structured in four phases: preparing to study, arrival in Germany, successfully pursuing your studies and finishing your studies with graduation.
